THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

HE FED THEM WITH THE FINEST WHEAT AND SATISFIED THEM WITH HONEY FROM THE ROCK. cf. PSALM 81

The cup we share, is it not the blood of Christ? And the bread we break, is it not his body (2,3)? Just as God fed the Israelites with manna from heaven (1), so too do we feed on the best of wheat (Ps), the bread of angels, food for the pilgrim journey (Seq).

FIRST READING—DEUTERONOMY 8:2-3
Never forget the Lord your God, who brought you out of slavery and fed you with manna in the desert.

PSALM—147
Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

SECOND READING—1 CORINTHIANS 10:16-17
Because the loaf of bread is one, we who partake of it, though we are many, are one body.

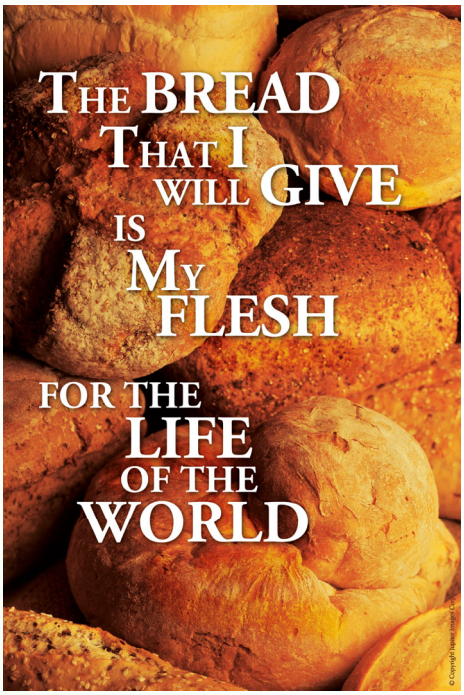
GOSPEL—JOHN 6:51-58
Jesus said to the crowds, "I am the living bread;
whoever eats this bread will live forever."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

At the heart of today's solemnity is a eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide.

Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. "Before our mind's eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present." Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from "Corpus Christi" to "The Body and Blood of Christ" and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light. Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

O GOD, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.



TRUST IN JESUS

Today's feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God's word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus. In today's Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

OUR NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR JANE HEINRICHS

Jane has just completed her doctoral degree in piano performance at the University of Washington, where she has been a resident of Seattle for the last five years. A native of Fort Smith, Jane attended the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, and since then has lived in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Taiwan and Hong Kong before moving to Washington State. She has played both organ and piano in many Seattle-area churches and in many solo and choral performances at the University of Washington. She was formerly the music director of St. Lorenzo Ruiz Catholic Church in Walnut, California, a suburb of Los Angeles, and was involved with choirs presenting classical, contemporary, and multicultural repertoire. She was also active in the community hosting high school exchange students from China. She has been a faculty member of the Seattle Piano Academy.

Jane enjoys traveling—especially cross-country drives. Her daughter Samantha is twenty-two and a senior at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Daughter Lauren is twenty-three and teaches English in Taipei, Taiwan. Jane is excited to become a part of the St. Joseph Catholic Church community, and believes that worship through music is a vibrant element in our growing relationship with God.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Since early this morning Dean has been working to prepare dinner for his wife Sheila's birthday. While the bread dough rose he bought fresh vegetables, cheese, and pasta. As the aroma of baking bread filled the house Carla helped her father cook his special sauce. Later there were vegetables to prepare, pie to bake, presents to wrap, and the table to set with little George's hand-painted placemats. At last Dean calls out "Dinner's ready!" The family gathers and the prayer begins: "Bless us, O Lord and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive from thy bounty through Christ our Lord. Amen."

In shared meals the gift of food is made more nourishing by the gift of community. Today's Scripture invites us to unwrap some of the "gifts" that we bless and receive in our eucharistic meal. Christ shares the gift of himself in the word, the cup, and the loaf. Like Dean's family, we in the community also share the gift of ourselves with one another in our sharing of the Body and Blood of Christ. The living, breathing Body of Christ in the community nourishes the life of Christ in each of us when we sit down together at the eucharistic table.

"We Are Called!" "¡Somos Llamandos!"

Como San Jerónimo enseñó, "Ignorancia de la Escritura es ignorancia de Cristo". Por lo tanto, los católicos deben leer la Santa Biblia con el Corazón de la Iglesia y estudiar la Santa Biblia usando comentarios católicos y el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica.

Jesse Romero tiene una Maestría en Teología Católica de la Universidad Franciscana de Steubenville, OH. Antes y desde entonces, ha pasado su tiempo enseñando, hablando, escribiendo y dando estudios bíblicos Católicos, Conferencias, Misiones y Retiros sobre todos los asuntos relacionados con la Fe Católica.

Después de redescubrir sus raíces católicas, Jesse estudió y rezó su camino de vuelta a una ferviente práctica en curso de la Fe Católica. A través de sus inmensas experiencias con no católicos y católicos alejados, Jesse se ha vuelto competente en cómo "hablar la verdad en la caridad" (Efesios 4:15) y es muy eficaz para llevarlos a la plenitud de la verdad encontrada sólo en la Iglesia Católica.

Si su parroquia sufre de baja energía, llámeme, puedo empezar de nuevo. Soy un Evangelio completo, creyendo en la Biblia, nacido de nuevo, lleno del Espíritu, evangélico, católico ortodoxo cristiano, lavado y fortalecido por la sangre de Jesús. Una Biblia en una mano, con un rosario en mi otra mano y con Jesús en mi corazón, oiréis la plenitud de la fe católica en un estilo evangélico que destruye la teología". -Jesse Romero

Jesse tiene un diploma en Artes Liberales de Mount St. Mary's College en Los Angeles, CA y tiene una Maestría en Teología Católica de la Universidad Franciscana de Steubenville en Ohio. Como orgullosos padres de Paul, Annmarie y Joshua, Jesse y su esposa Anita han estado felices casados desde 1983.

"Jesus Himself said, 'Go therefore go and make disciples of all nations' (Matthew 28:19). This is not a suggestion, but a command. This book will help you live this command." -Fr. Larry Richards

"El mismo Jesús dijo:" Id pues, y haced discípulos de todas las naciones "(Mateo 28:19) Esto no es una sugerencia, sino un mandamiento, este libro os ayudará a vivir este mandamiento. -Fr. Larry Richards

As St. Jerome taught, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." Therefore, Catholics should read the Holy Bible with the Heart of the Church and study the Holy Bible using Catholic commentaries and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Jesse Romero has a Masters Degree in Catholic Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville, OH. Before and since then, he has spent his time teaching, speaking, writing, and giving Catholic Bible studies, Conferences, Missions, and Retreats on all matters relating to the Catholic Faith.

After rediscovering his Catholic roots, Jesse studied and prayed his way back to a fervent on–going practice of the Catholic Faith. Through his vast experiences with non–Catholics and fallen–away Catholics alike, Jesse has become proficient on how to "speak the truth in charity" (Ephesians 4:15) and is very effective at bringing them into the fullness of truth found only in the Catholic Church.

"If your parish suffers from low energy, call me, I can jump start it. I'm a full Gospel, Bible Believing, Born Again, Spirit Filled, Evangelical, Orthodox Catholic Christian, washed and empowered by the blood of Jesus. With a Bible in one hand, with a rosary in my other hand and with Jesus in my heart, you will hear the fullness of the Catholic faith in an evangelical style with devil destroying theology." —Jesse Romero

Jesse holds a B.A. in Liberal Arts from Mount St. Mary's College in Los Angeles, CA and he has a Masters Degree in Catholic Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio. As the proud parents of Paul, Annmarie and Joshua, Jesse and his wife Anita have been happily married since 1983.
