FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TO YOU, I LIFT UP MY SOUL, O MY GOD. IN YOU, I HAVE TRUSTED; LET ME NOT BE PUT TO SHAME. NOR LET MY ENEMIES EXULT OVER ME; AND LET NONE WHO HOPE IN YOU BE PUT TO SHAME.

cf. PSALM 25:1-3

Lord, rend the heavens and come down (1). Come and save us (Ps) from our sins. Let us turn again to you (Ps) and so be found blameless (2) when you return in glory(3).

FIRST READING — ISAIAH 63:16b-17

We are the clay and you, O Lord, are the potter:
we are the work of your hands.

RESPONSORIAL — PSALM 80

Lord, make us turn to you;
let us see your face and we shall be saved.

SECOND READING — 1 CORINTHIANS 1:3-9

God is faithful;
by God you were called to fellowship with the Son.

GOSPEL — MARK 13:33-37

Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come.

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the soul of the father of Rob Busteded, Robert L. Busteded, who passed into eternal life on November 13, 2017.

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the soul of the father of Linda Vanderpool, Joe Dressendorfer, who passed into eternal life on November 27, 2017.

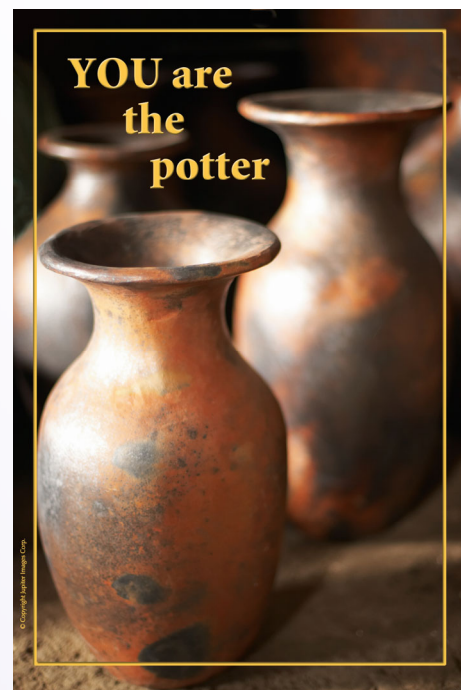

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the soul of the husband of Barbara Springer, Bill Springer, who passed into eternal life on November 27, 2017.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Advent calendars appear now in many homes, and newfangled formats are even available on line. Children have fun opening the doors and windows keyed to the days counting down to Christmas. Behind each door is a picture related to the Christmas mystery, perhaps a scripture verse or saying, but more and more these days something totally unconnected to religious life, like a small toy or a chocolate treat, appears instead. The Advent calendar is not very old as traditions go. We can trace it back to German-speaking Christians, both Protestant and Catholic. Lutherans might have originated the custom by placing chalk marks on doors starting December 1, lighting candles every day, or placing a new religious picture on the wall each day during Advent. The oldest known hand-made calendar goes back to 1851, and the first printed ones appeared in 1908 in Germany with Bible verses behind the doors. By far the most interesting calendar is a building, the town hall (Rathaus) of Gengenbach in Germany's Black Forest. Every year the townspeople invite an illustrator of children's books to create twenty-four paintings or motifs for each of the twenty-four main windows of the building. Every night the people gather to see a new window opened and illuminated.

Very few commercial Advent calendars pay much attention to the core values of our liturgical calendar: the pivotal place of Sunday, the importance of Advent feasts like Saint Lucy and Saint Nicholas, and the clear shift in tone on December 17 from Advent longing and preparation toward imminent hope in Christ's coming. That kind of creativity is left up to you!

GOD HAS A DIFFERENT PLAN

We begin the season of Advent with a heartfelt call for our own repentance. We remember God's faithful love for us, and call upon God to help us to turn back. For "behold, you are angry, and we are sinful" (Isaiah 64:4). In the first reading and in the psalm, we recall God's promises and lament our unfaithfulness and our guilt. We call upon God's might and power in order to save us. With Isaiah, we ask God to "rend the heavens and come down, / with the mountains quaking before you" (Isaiah 63:19).

Yes, God is faithful to us, because we are the work of God's hands. God is the potter, we are the clay. And yet, our concept of how God will come to save us is rooted in our own expectations of a warrior God who crushes mountains and thunders into our lives with great noise and glory. But God has a different plan: the Incarnation.

NWA Food Bank & CEO

After previously naming CEO as their Agency of the Year, the Northwest Arkansas Food Bank is again showing appreciation for CEO. Food Bank representatives Casey Cowan, Barbara Carter, Jordan Gershon, Kent & Diana Eikenberry, Mike Williams, Travis Sorensen, and Austin Harms recently spent a day cleaning flower beds, weeding, trimming bushes, and bagging chicken.

The Food Bank is also providing to CEO, through a grant from Walmart, a walk in freezer that will enable CEO to expand our storage facilities for meat, chicken, and other frozen items.

Emmanuel Lutheran Church hosted a successful "Brews for Blessings" event that brought in $7,000 to benefit CEO. Thanks to these local breweries that participated in the event: Columbus House, Bike Rack, New Province, Fossil Cove, Core, and Black Apple Crossing Cider.

Volunteers Needed!

CEO needs volunteers on both a permanent and substitute basis. There are many positions to be filled- receptionists, interviewers, computer operators, and food room workers. Only a few hours per month can make a huge difference. If you are unable to work during the week, consider being a Saturday volunteer on the first Saturday of the month. To learn more about volunteer opportunities, contact your church representative, or email us.

Halloween Shopping

These sweet little shoppers from Central United Methodist Church collected over 160 boxes of cereal through the CUMC Kids Ministry. In addition to cereal the children also made Halloween bags for the children of CEO clients to collect those Halloween treats!

Here Kitty Kitty..

... and puppy too! While CEO often purchases food to refill our pantry, we rely solely on donations to help feed the four-footed family members of our clients. The source that had been providing large pet food donations is no longer able to help us, so when you think of food for CEO, please consider adding a little something for Fido. Woof and Meow mean "thank you!"

Goodbye and Hello

We say goodbye to CEO Treasurer Roger Haney, who has moved out of state. We appreciate all that he has done during his tenure as treasurer, keeping our checkbook and compiling financial reports. At the same time we welcome Robert Allen, who has volunteered to take on this duty. Thank you, Robert, and welcome!

While not new to the job, we also want to thank another of our behind the scenes volunteers-our web master, Ellis Melton, who has taken on the responsibility of keeping our web site up to date with pictures and information.

It was a busy summer at CEO. From June 1 through August 31, CEO provided a three day supply of food to 3,274 people. It is thanks to you, our supporters and volunteers, that we are able to do this. With the holiday season approaching, consider what you can do to support CEO- monetarily, with a food drive, collecting grocery bags, spending a few hours each month to volunteer, or keeping up with us through our web site or facebook page. If amazon is your go to site for online holiday shopping, remember that if you use smile.amazon.com you can designate CEO as your preferred charity, and each purchase will generate a donation to CEO. What could be easier?

EVANGELIO DE HOY

Mc 13, 33-37

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Velen y estén preparados, porque no saben cuándo llegará el momento. Así como un hombre que se va de viaje, deja su casa y encomienda a cada quien lo que debe hacer y encarga al portero que esté velando, así también velen ustedes, pues no saben a qué hora va a regresar el dueño de la casa: si al anochecer, a la medianoche, al canto del gallo o a la madrugada. No vaya a suceder que llegue de repente y los halle durmiendo. Lo que les digo a ustedes, lo digo para todos: permanezcan alerta".

HORARIO MISAS DE NAVIDAD

La Natividad de Jesús se celebra este año en lunes, lo que significa que tendremos un horario diferente para las Misas dominicales del 24 de diciembre.

Las Misas para el 4to Domingo de Adviento son:

Sábado 23 de diciembre, 5:00 p.m. (inglés)

Sábado 23 de diciembre, 7:00 p.m. (español)

Domingo 24 de diciembre, 9:00 a.m. (inglés)

Domingo 24 de diciembre, 11:30 a.m. (inglés)

Atención: NO habrá Misa de 1:30 p.m. ó de 5:00 p.m. el 24 de diciembre

Las Misas para La Natividad de Nuestro Señor Jesús son:

Domingo 24 de diciembre, 4:00 p.m. (Misa de los niños en inglés)

Domingo 24 de diciembre, 7:00 p.m. (español)

Domingo 24 de diciembre, 11:30 p.m. (Villancicos y Misa Gallo en inglés)

Lunes 25 de diciembre, 10:00 a.m. (inglés)

Como católicos, honramos la Misa dominical, en la que celebramos, cada semana, la Resurrección de Nuestro Señor. Por esta razón, estamos obligados a asistir a la Misa dominical (que por esta ocasión será el sábado 23 de diciembre, a las 7:00 p.m.), y también estamos obligados a asistir a la Misa de la Natividad de Nuestro Señor, que, en español se celebrará el domingo 24 de diciembre, a las 7:00 pm.

Este año, tenemos el privilegio (y la obligación) de asistir a Misa dos veces seguidas: El Cuarto Domingo de Adviento y la Natividad de Nuestro Señor. Los esperamos a las dos Misas!!!

Celebraciones a Ntra. Señora de Guadalupe
