DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

LIKE NEWBORN INFANTS, YOU MUST LONG FOR THE PURE, SPIRITUAL MILK, THAT IN HIM YOU MAY GROW TO SALVATION, ALLELUIA.

1 PETER 2:2

Thomas believed because he saw the risen Jesus (3). Although we have over seen him, we believe that Jesus is the Christ, begotten (2b). We give thanks to the Lord (Ps) that he has formed us into a community of believers (1), united in the Spirit.

FIRST READING — ACTS 4:32-35

With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

RESPONSORIAL — PSALM 118

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING — 1 JOHN 5:1-6

The victory that conquers the world is our faith.

GOSPEL — JOHN 20:19-31

Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the soul of Robert W. Stophlet, the father of Mike Stophlet. Robert passed into eternal life on March 31, 2018.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Sometimes children acquire nicknames in childhood that stalk them through adulthood: "Pinky," "Boo-boo," and the like. This Sunday was once called "Low Sunday," a step down from Easter glory, and an unfortunate nickname since Easter rejoicing goes on for fifty days. Traditionally this is the day when the newly baptized put away their white baptismal robes and returned to their everyday life after a week of intense celebration. Of course, the goal was to take up everyday duties with a very new point of view.

A long title for the day was Dominica in albis deposito, or "The Lord's Day for Putting Away the Albs," so no wonder the nickname "Low Sunday" arose. In the old calendar it was also called "Quasimodo Sunday," after the first word of the opening chant, Quasimodo geniti infantes, or "As newborn infants," a reference to the newly baptized taken from the Epistle of Peter. Victor Hugo's bell-ringing hero in The Hunchback of Notre Dame was abandoned as an infant on the threshold of the cathedral of Paris on Low Sunday, 1467, and named "Quasimodo" for the feast.

GOD of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SO THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

It is not often that the author of one of the books of the Bible comes right out and tells us directly why he is writing what he is writing. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, taken from the conclusion of John's Gospel, the author tells us that he has chosen to record these events so "that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (20:31).

The letter of John echoes this idea by saying that "[e]veryone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God" (5:1)-what we might refer to as being "born again." Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles for this Second Sunday of Easter shows us exactly what it looks like when believers are born again through faith.

"IN PRAISE OF WISDOM"

Cackie is the director of our diocesan Little Rock Scripture Study Program. She is an astute bible scholar and will share her insights regarding the genre of Wisdom Literature including the following:

- What can the bible teach us about true wisdom?
- Why is wisdom more desirable than knowledge?
- What are some unique features of the Bible's wisdom tradition?
- If the "beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord" (Prov 9:10), just how wise are we?

The program will be Monday, April 23, at 7:00 p.m. in with light refreshments and fellowship to follow

Please note: Child care will be provided upon request and reservation. Call Concetta Baker at 479-841-0266.

FERTILITY AWARENESS IN THE TEEN YEARS

Fertility awareness, knowing about one's fertility cycle, what is healthy and what is not, is important for females of all ages, from puberty to pre-menopause! The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologist, as well as the American Academy of Pediatrics strongly encourage parents and their daughters to be more aware of their cycle patterns in order to report irregular patterns and problems to their healthcare professional at regular medical visits.

However, this requires that parents and their daughters have a basic understanding of healthy and unhealthy cycle patterns during the onset of menses and throughout the teen years. Early monitoring, and thus early detection of irregularities, can lead to earlier treatments and interventions by physicians using natural and cooperative measures to address underlying causes of various problems.

Is your daughter struggling with any of the following: severe PMS, heavy bleeding, painful periods, irregular cycles or other issues?

If so, or even if there are no problems at this time, this discussion will address the importance of monitoring cycle patterns and the many benefits they can offer our young girls starting now and for the whole of life!

Join us at St. Stephen's Parish in Bentonville, on Sunday, April 8, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the St. Jerome Room to learn more! # DOMINGO DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA

ENTRONIZACIÓN EN EL HOGAR DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS Y EL INMACULADO CORAZÓN DE MARÍA ESTABLECERÉ LA PAZ EN SUS FAMILIAS

(Segunda de las Doce Promesas del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús)

La ceremonia de Entronización del Hogar al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús es un acontecimiento único, pero el compromiso es para toda la vida. En una familia dedicada al Corazón de Jesús, esta ceremonia debe ser el comienzo de una vida nueva, más íntima en la fe, más ferviente en la caridad.

"El espíritu de la fe es indispensable para alcanzar una verdadera intimidad con el Corazón de Jesús, cuán diferentes son nuestros sufrimientos y los altibajos de nuestra vida cotidiana cuando los vemos a la luz de Dios. El enigma de la vida se desvanece, todas las cosas se ven claras, necesarias y divinamente ordenadas, y a pesar de la amargura del exilio disfrutamos de una paz inalterable". (P. Mateo) (De las doce promesas en favor de los dedicados al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, reveladas a Santa Margarita María Alacoque. Citas de "JESUS REY DEL AMOR - Fr. Mateo Crawley-Boevey, SS.CC.)

Si les gustaría entronizar su hogar al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, favor de llamar a Kathleen Blessing, 479-236-0826 or kblessing@shelterinsurance.com ó en español a Lorena Álvarez al 479-502-0067

La Fiesta de la Divina Misericordia tiene como fin principal hacer llegar a los corazones de cada persona el siguiente mensaje: Dios es Misericordioso y nos ama a todos ... "y cuanto más grande es el pecador, tanto más grande es el derecho que tiene a Mi misericordia"(Diario, 723).

En este mensaje, que Nuestro Señor nos ha hecho llegar por medio de Santa Faustina, se nos pide que tengamos plena confianza en la Misericordia de Dios, y que seamos siempre misericordiosos con el prójimo a través de nuestras palabras, acciones y oraciones... "porque la fe sin obras, por fuerte que sea, es inútil" (Diario, 742).

Con el fin de celebrar apropiadamente esta festividad, se recomienda rezar la Coronilla y la Novena a la Divina Misericordia; confesarse -para la cual es indispensable realizar primero un buen examen de conciencia-, y recibir la Santa Comunión el día de la Fiesta de la Divina Misericordia.

"La humanidad no conseguirá la paz hasta que no se dirija con confianza a Mi misericordia" (Diario, 300)
