FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

THE MERCIFUL LOVE OF THE LORD FILLS THE EARTH; BY THE WORD OF THE LORD THE HEAVENS WERE MADE, ALLELUIA. cf. PSALM 33:5-6

Jesus is the "stone rejected by the builders which has become the cornerstone" (1,P). He is the good shepherd who laid down his life for us (3). Through his paschal mystery we have become children of God (2).

FIRST READING — ACTS 4:8-12

There is no other name under heaven
by which we are to be saved than the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene.

RESPONSORIAL — PSALM 118

The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

SECOND READING — 1 JOHN 3:1-2

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

GOSPEL — JOHN 10:11-18

I am the good shepherd.
A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

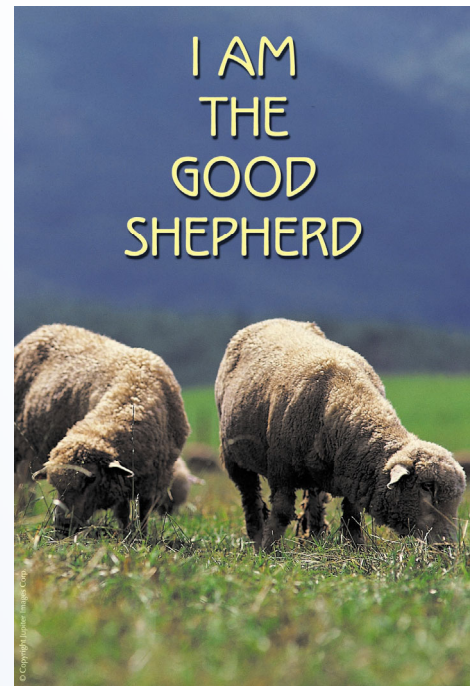

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the soul of Kimberly Gray Smith, the father of Mallory Steinert. Kim passed into eternal life on April 9, 2018.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Most languages take the name for this fifty-day season from the Lord's Pasover: Pasqua in Italian, Pâques in French, Paach in Dutch, Pascha in Greek and Russian. English has a much newer name, the name of a pagan goddess, Eoster. For centuries before Christianity took hold, in both Germany and Britain the spring equinox was dedicated to her and the concepts of fertility and rebirth. She was said to be a playful spirit, following the Sun King's chariot, and ending the reign of winter.

She had a magical companion, a rabbit who hid eggs in the fields to coax plants and animals to rebirth. It was believed that Eoster once came across a bird with broken wings and saved it by turning it into a rabbit—an egg-laying rabbit at that! Although they were baptized, most people didn't take to the new Latin name (Pascha Domini) too easily, and kept calling the spring equinox by the old accustomed name. For good measure, they kept a pagan name for Christmas, too: Yule. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

O GOD, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SAVED BY THE ONE WHO WAS REJECTED

Some city teenagers often scorn and reject farm kids. Yet it's no exaggeration to say that humanity owes its life to farmers who care for the world's crops and livestock. This week's scriptures remind us that Jesus was as rejected as a shepherd, a farm boy, yet we owe our very lives to him.

In this Sunday's reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter tells the people that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, the one who was rejected. In John's letter we hear that we have become God's beloved children through Jesus, whom the world did not know. Lastly, in the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who "lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). Will you join Jesus in laying down your life for God's beloved flock?

LIVING GOD'S WORD

Jesus not only searches us out, but he "bore our sins in his body upon the cross so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness" (1 Peter 2:24). We praise the Father for giving us Jesus as "the shepherd and guardian of our souls" and we pray for all who minister to God's people (2:25).

Message from St. Thomas Aquinas University Parish:

Please note that after Saturday, May 5, St. Thomas Aquinas will no longer have a regularly scheduled Saturday 9:00 a.m. Mass or 9:30 a.m. confessions as a part of its weekly schedule. This is the result of a change in the pastoral duties of the priests there.

All other weekly Mass and confession times will remain the same, and we hope to add additional confession times during the week when the fall semester begins. We apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate your understanding.

SILENCE

St. Joseph Master Plan Phase III Parish Survey

We want to hear from you!

As part of the Core Team's efforts to collect input for the design of our new church, we will conduct a parish-wide survey in English and Spanish for ALL St. Joseph parishioners to give their input.

The survey will be conducted online at the end of this month and the beginning of May. A link to the survey will be sent out via Flocknote and published in the bulletin, so you can complete the survey at your convenience at home.

For those that do not have computer/internet access or need assistance completing the online survey, volunteers and iPads will be available on the weekend of April 28 and 29 scheduled around Mass times.

Times and Locations to complete survey at St. Joseph:

Saturday, April 28, Room 152 (downstairs)

3:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. and

6:15 p.m. to 7:15 p.m.

Sunday, April 29, Room 152 (downstairs)

10:15 a.m. to 11:15 a.m.

11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

3:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Survey results will be given to the Core Team Design Committee, who will:

- begin work on design proposals for our new church and project costs based on assessment results
- gather architectural qualifications and select architect

As a parish, we will submit a proposed building design to the bishop, who has the responsibility of approving the design or asking for modifications. As a parish, we want the bishop and our future architect to understand what is important to our parishioners. Therefore, your feedback will be valuable in helping to inform the design that the parish submits to the bishop and in explaining why various features are important to our parish community.

Together, great things can be accomplished.

Thanks to you, the 25th Annual Trent Trumbo Memorial Easter Feed was a tremendous success – touching the lives of thousands of our community's less fortunate

This year's Easter Feed provided 6,654 meals to the homeless, veterans, elderly, and shut-ins who reside within our community. The event took place on Saturday, March 31, and we are grateful to Central United Methodist Church, for once again opening its doors to help us host the Easter Feed.

M&N Augustine Foundation To the parishioners of St. Joseph's Church, who played a part in hosting this special occasion, to those who donated funds, baked hams, turkeys, cookies, and cakes or simply who prayed for the success of this event. My family and I pray that you will feel that special energy that comes only when one human being serves another.

Those who partake as volunteers and contributors for this event become rapidly aware of how, by joining together, we are blessing those less fortunate among us. The generosity of spirit and of self is felt by all. My family and I are very proud to lead this effort, along with the over 300 volunteers who participated in this year's Easter Feed. We owe a great debt of gratitude to all who have supported us in hosting such a magnanimous event. I am completely convinced that it is the hand of our risen Lord that makes an effort such as this possible. I know of no other occasion, in Fayetteville, where such a massive group of volunteers show whole heart and love, in such a manner. I am reminded of the words by a Minister from Central United Methodist Church who provided the most accurate statement regarding the Easter Feed, "This is the most vivid demonstration of what humankind can achieve when we put aside the artificial barriers that keep us apart and put on the spirit of unity, which comes from our Almighty God".

This missive is to thank all who are a part of the Easter Feed...

- To Fathers Jason and Elisee-Noel, Deacon Marcelino and the staff of St. Joseph's, please know that we could not host such an occasion without your active participation.
- To the Knights of Columbus who donate the vegetables every year, in honor of Jim Kinnally. On Jim's behalf, we say thank you.
- To Jim Weir and the youth of St. Joseph's for the hundreds of Easter Baskets assembled so that the children in attendance could experience the love and grace of Easter.

We could single out dozens of individuals who went beyond the call of duty, but for fear of leaving anyone out, let me conclude by simply saying that we pray that God's blessings will be your constant companion during this Easter season.

Again, allow me to thank all the parishioners of St. Joseph's for your encouragement, prayers, and assistance.

With a genuine appreciation and praise to Almighty God, we extend our thanks.

Warmest regards,

Merlin J. Augustine Jr.

CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

MINISTERIO DE SANACIÓN DE PAREJAS JUEVES 26 DE ABRIL, 7:00 P.M.

Se invita a todas las parejas a experimentar la sanación y la paz que sólo el encuentro personal con Jesús nos puede dar. Como humanos, nos lastimamos con frecuencia, y tristemente, lastimamos más a las personas que más amamos. Dense la oportunidad de vivir en paz, armonía y felicidad! Dios los ama y desea darles Su Amor, para que, a su vez, ustedes lo compartan con sus hijos y con los demás.

Este ministerio de Reconciliación de Parejas frente al Santísimo Sacramento, ofrece a las parejas un tiempo de silencio para meditar en las heridas que se han hecho, después, cada pareja tiene la oportunidad de pedirse perdón y perdonar y dar gracias a Dios por la oportunidad de recomenzar. Al término, nos reunimos en la cafetería para convivir con las demás parejas.

Para mayores informes, favor de contactar a Felipe y Lidia Torres al 479-799-2610 ó 479-502-3826. Guardería disponible.
