TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TURN YOUR EYES, O GOD, OUR SHIELD; AND LOOK ON THE FACE OF YOUR ANOINTED ONE; ONE DAY WITHIN YOUR COURTS IS BETTER THAN A THOUSAND ELSEWHERE. PSALM 84:10-11

Wisdom has prepared a banquet of food and wine (1), an image expressive of God's communion with us. For those who desire life (Ps), Jesus gives his own flesh and blood (3). Thus we shall be filled with the Spirit (2).

FIRST READING — PROVERBS 9:1-6
Wisdom has built her house;
she has dressed her meat, mixed her wine,
yes, she has spread her table.

PSALM — PSALM 34
Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING — EPHESIANS 5:15-20
Be filled with the Spirit, giving thanks always and for everything.

GOSPEL — JOHN 6:51-58
I am the living bread that came down from heaven.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Sometimes the heat of summer translates into unrest in a city's streets. In the summer of 1834, popular sentiment against the presence of the Ursuline nuns near Boston reached a boiling point. An influx of Irish laborers had an impact on the work force in the city, and a deep-seated resentment against Catholics fueled the fire. The nuns supported themselves with a school, and most of the young women students were drawn from patrician Protestant families. Nevertheless, rumors fed by the saga of an unhappy junior sister and a later episode of a senior sister fleeing the place increased tensions. The city's selectmen were given a tour by the disgruntled sister, who by then had returned, and found all things in good order. That didn't please the mob, and the mother superior didn't help matters when she said that the bishop had platoons of Irishmen at hand, twenty thousand strong, to do marauders harm. By August 11, the convent had been invaded, ransacked, and burned to the ground. The nuns fled to Maine and Canada. The diocese attempted to recover losses, but the commonwealth offered only ten thousand dollars, which was rejected. Years later, a legislative bill for the state to rebuild the convent and school was roundly defeated. Yet the enterprise of Catholic education had great resilience, and in 1946, more than a hundred years after the riots, the Ursulines returned to Boston to re-establish an academy that endures to the present day.

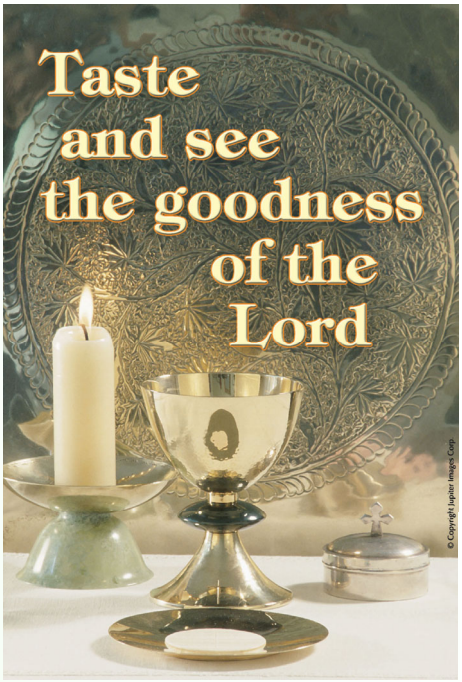
O GOD, who has prepared for those who love you good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of your love, so that, loving you in all things and above all things, we may attain your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, on God, for ever and ever. Amen.



THIS EUCHARISTIC FEAST

Some things about human nature don't change, even over the course of centuries. When we celebrate a holiday, we have a meal; when we celebrate a significant event, we have a feast.

In today's first reading, Lady Wisdom is setting a feast, a sign of celebrating the covenant that Israel has with God. Israel's central remembrance of its saving Exodus covenant is the Passover meal. So it is natural—and not coincidental—that the Christian celebration of the new covenant sealed by the blood of Christ on the cross happens at a meal, our Eucharist, offered first by Jesus in the context of Passover remembrance. It is easy for us, sometimes, to forget the very long and rich religious and human origins of our eucharistic feasting on the bread and cup that are the Body and Blood of Jesus.

Today, and for the next few Sundays that we hear the "Bread of Life" discourse from John, let us bring to mind the loving covenant that God makes with us, and be filled with great joy at this marvelous feast that we have come to attend!

The Catholic Church teaches that every baptized Christian has been gifted with Charisms that are meant to be used in service to the Body of Christ. From the Catechism: Whether extraordinary or simple and humble, charisms are graces of the Holy Spirit which directly or indirectly benefit the Church, ordered as they are to her building up, to the good of men, and to the needs of the world.

This is hard for some people to accept and realize. We are ALL gifted, we ALL have a call to use our gifts in the service of others.

How can you begin to find what your gifts are and how to use them? Begin to explore the process of Discernment…. learn what the Charisms are, learn how you might have been gifted. How can you begin?

Begin the journey, discover and discern your Charism. I promise it is worth it. Each location will host Part 1 which will guide you through a practical understanding of the charisms and how they are played out in daily life. Upon discerning what charism the Holy Spirit has given you, Part II of the workshop helps you use these gifts to be the eyes, ears, hands and feet of Jesus to everyone around you.

La Iglesia Católica enseña que cada Cristiano bautizado ha sido dotado con carismas que están destinados a ser usados para servir al cuerpo de Cristo. Del Catecismo: sea extraordinario o simple y humilde, los carismas son las gracias del Espíritu Santo que directa o indirectamente benefician a la iglesia, ordenadas como están a su edificación, al bien de los hombres, y a las necesidades del mundo.

Es difícil para algunas personas aceptar y darse cuenta. Todos somos dotados, todos tenemos una llamada para utilizar nuestros regalos al servicio de otros.

¿Cómo puede usted comenzar a encontrar cuáles son sus regalos y cómo utilizarlos? Comience a explorar el proceso de discernimiento.... aprenda cuáles son los carismas, aprenda cómo podría haber sido dotado. ¿Cómo puedes empezar?

Comienza el viaje, descubre y discerni tu carisma. Te prometo que vale la pena. Cada ubicación acogerá la parte 1 que le guiará a través de una comprensión práctica de los carismas y cómo se juegan en la vida cotidiana al discernir lo que el carisma del Espíritu Santo te ha dado, la parte II del taller te ayuda a usar estos dones para ser los ojos, oídos, manos y pies de Jesús para todos los que te rodean.

ST. JOSEPH
SUMMER MISSION TRIP RECAP

Thank you to all of our parishioners for supporting our youth ministry summer mission trip to St. Louis! We had 43 St. Joseph participants attend the mission trip, which was made possible by the generosity of our St. Joseph families. Thank you for believing in our young people and our youth ministry program!

Our group from St. Joseph joined 300 young Catholics from across the country and together; we were able to provide St. Louis with over 7000 hours of community service. Our St. Joseph group worked at several community centers that serve children from low income families. We helped with work around the community centers and also played with the children and participated in their daily activities The service experience was awesome and the staff and children at the community centers were so grateful to have the help of our teens.

Our mission experience was a nice mixture of service and spirituality. The theme of the week was "Everlasting" and we focused on the Paschal Mystery and how this central mystery of our faith relates to the life of a young person. It was a great week for our teens. They served for 3 full days, prayed, went to mass and adoration together, experienced a weekend Catholic Conference and even mixed in trips to the St. Louis Zoo, Gateway Arch and City Museum.

Thank you again for all of your prayers and support, the mission trip is such a transforming experience for so many of our young people, and it is through your prayers and generosity that it is possible!
