HAPPY EASTER!

Happy Easter! Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch—Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus' Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, "Here comes everybody!" So in this Jubilee of Mercy, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: "Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!" Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody! Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

EASTER SUNDAY

I HAVE RISEN, AND I AM WITH YOU STILL, ALLELUIA. YOU HAVE LAID YOUR HAND UPON ME, ALLELUIA. TOO WONDERFUL FOR ME, THIS KNOWLEDGE, ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA. PSALM 139:18

On this day of days (Ps) we offer a joyful sacrifice of praise (Seq) to the Father who raised his Son from the dead (1,3). Let us be intent upon the life Christ offers us (2a), Christ our Passover who has been sacrificed (2b).

FIRST READING—ACTS 10:34a

Peter is an eyewitness:
 The Lord is risen.

PSALM—PSALM 118

This is the day the Lord has made;
 let us rejoice and be glad.

FIRST SECOND READING—COLOSSIANS 3:1-4

All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven.

GOSPEL—JOHN 20:1-9

Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John;
 Each responds to the empty tomb.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Over the centuries, the Church has demonstrated a wonderful ability to adopt a culture's favorite symbols and customs and assign them new meaning. Easter eggs have a very ancient pedigree: nature's perfect package, emblem of new life, dyed and decorated and given as gifts in ancient Egypt, Rome, China, and Persia. Just as the long hard winter is over, the egg bursts with promise of life and nourishment. Long ago, Christians came to see the egg not as a symbol of spring's rebirth, but of ours, and as a sign of Christ's tomb. A Polish legend says that Mary, in compassion for the soldiers at the cross, gave them eggs, but that her tears stained their shells with brilliant color. Legends have their origin in tales told around a hearth, but they often contain a profound truth. The idea of Mary, the first Christian, engaged in a merciful act of forgiveness and tenderness even in the shadow of the cross, describes the age old wish that Christ "Easter in us."

James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

O GOD, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, has conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

DIVINE MERCY PAMPHLETS

Building upon the revelations to St. Faustina Kowalska, St. John Paul II designated the Sunday after Easter Sunday to be Divine Mercy Sunday. This year, that is April 28. Here at St. Joseph, we'll hand out a pamphlet called The Divine Mercy Chaplet for the Sick and the Dying. The pamphlet will explain, in part, the vast resources of grace and mercy and the Divine Mercy devotion.

The basic Divine Mercy Chaplet is very short and simple. It's very easy to memorize and can be devoutly recited in seven minutes. You can pray it using your regular rosary. It is often prayed during the three O'clock hour, the hour of Jesus' passion and death. It is also a wonderful effort to say the chaplet as a family, perhaps once a week, but certainly when there is a great need, such as a family member who is sick.

The pamphlets will be given out at all Masses on the weekend of Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27-28. Everyone can take one and put it with your personal items so that when there is a moment of great need, someone in your family will remember. More copies will be available anytime at the holy card rack outside of the Adoration Chapel.

Jesus, we trust in You!

O truly blessed night,
worthy alone to know the time and hour
when Christ rose from the underworld!

This is the night
of which it is written:
The night shall be as bright as day,
dazzling is the night for me,
and full of gladness.

The sanctifying power of this night
dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen,
and joy to mourners,
drives out hatred, fosters concord,
and brings down the mighty...

May the Morning Star which never sets find this flame still burning;
Christ, that Morning Star,
who, coming back from death's domain,
has shed his peaceful light on humanity,
and lives and reigns for ever and ever.

From the Easter Proclamation

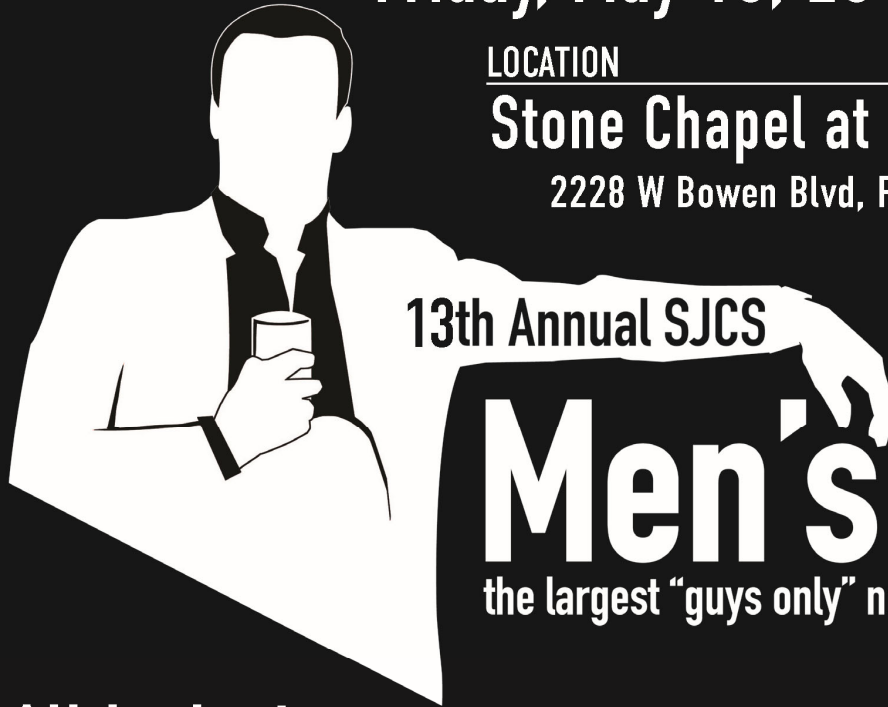

Bring your friends and unwind for a lively night of camaraderie and good times!
