FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AS FOR ME, IN JUSTICE I SHALL BEHOLD YOUR FACE; I SHALL BE FILLED WITH THE VISION OF YOUR GLORY. PSALM 17:15

The great commandment of love is not something “mysterious” or “remote.” Indeed, it is “very near” to us (1). Yet how difficult it is to fulfill, being neighbor to whoever is in need (3). But if we seek God (Ps), we must “go and do the same” (3), for we have been created in, for, and through Christ (2).

FIRST READING—DEUTERONOMY 30:10-14

The word of the LORD is very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts.

PSALM—PSALM 19

Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

SECOND READING—COLOSSIANS 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God.

GOSPEL—LUKE 10:25-37

The Samaritan traveler was moved with compassion at the sight of the man stripped and beaten by robbers.

GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God’s law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God’s passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke’s Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God’s intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the “baptism of the bells,” recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell’s voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There’s no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

O GOD, who show the light of your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

THE ROOTS OF THE CRISIS

The clergy sexual abuse scandals have rocked the Catholic Church and caused a crisis of faith (and of evangelization) for many. When facing such a daunting and terrible crisis, it can be difficult to find the right way forward.

In this talk, Dr. Tim Gray explains with conviction and insight that to make any real and lasting change, we must keep faith, and look closely at the deep roots behind this crisis. Times of great scandal and corruption in the Church can be followed by times of even greater renewal and revival, if faithful men and women will enter the constructive conflict that truth requires.

"Tim offers a voice of reason and hope in the midst of these dire scandals. This talk brings light to the darkness."

Lighthouse Catholic Media titles are available at the kiosk in the entryway.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Live and let live." "Mind your own business." "Leave well enough alone." "It's not your problem." "Don't get involved." So goes the wisdom of the world, the law of the jungle. One of these sayings may come to mind when you see a car accident, a bum on the sidewalk, a competitor going bankrupt, a parent slapping a child, a teenage prostitute, a news story about illegal immigrants being deported.

We who have received the love of Christ are to live by a different law. It is "very near to you . . . in your hearts; you have only to carry it out" (Deuteronomy 30:14). We are to live in Christ's love and let our neighbor experience that same life-giving love. And yet, like the "scholar of the law" in today's Gospel, we always try to define who is--or more precisely, who isn't--our neighbor. There's no escaping the message of this Gospel passage. Everyone we fear or despise, every victim, every outsider, every undeserving soul whom God loves, we are to "go and do likewise."

LIVING GOD'S WORD

The good Samaritan doesn't ask the victim, "Who did this to you?" or "Did you deserve it?" or "Can you pay me back?" Like Christ, the Samaritan reveals "the image of the invisible God" (Colossians 1:15) by treating the suffering person with compassionate mercy and healing his wounds, not counting the cost.

ENTRONIZACIÓN DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS Y EL INMACULADO CORAZÓN DE MARÍA EN SU HOGAR

El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús pide reinar en todos los hogares mediante su imagen bendecida por un sacerdote. La consagración no es otra cosa que entregarse a Jesucristo, es la dedicación de nuestras personas y de nuestras cosas, reconociéndolas recibidas de la eterna caridad de Dios. Con la consagración aceptamos su imperio de verdad, justicia y caridad en nuestras vidas.

Consagrarse es ponerse totalmente a disposición de Cristo, es por eso un acto serio y bien meditado. Por eso se llama también entronización, porque pones un trono real en tu casa, el trono de Cristo, al cual proclamas como tu Rey y le quieres servir por amor. Darle el lugar que le corresponde al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús en nuestra familia, es tratar de que todo lo que se haga y se viva, sufrimientos, alegrías, trabajos, inquietudes, se ofrezca al Señor para la redención de la propia familia y del mundo.

"Si les gustaría entronizar su hogar al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, favor de llamar a Kathleen Blessing, 479-236-0826 or kblessing@shelterinsurance.com ó en español a Lorena Álvarez al 479-502-0067
